

Topics Covered

Module 1:

Overview of hospital pharmacy practice

- From community to hospital pharmacy
- Introduction to hospital pharmacy
- National Inpatient Medication Chart (NIMC)
- Other hospital medication charts
- Information resources available in the hospital setting
- Hospital formularies

Module 3:

Medicines information and Medication Safety

- Overview of medicines information
- Overview of medication safety

Module 2:

Medication management in a clinical setting

- Overview of medication history taking and reconciliation
- NIMC and undertaking a chart review
- VTE (venous thromboembolism) prophylaxis
- AMS (antimicrobial stewardship)
- Therapeutic Drug Monitoring
- Interpreting other clinical information resources
- Guided case study: Acute Kidney Injury
- Guided case study: Antimicrobials

Module 4:

Communication

- Who do you communicate with in the hospital setting?
- Communicating with patients
- Communicating with other pharmacists and health care professionals
- Clinical handover

Assessment

	Foundation Seminar in Clinical Medication Management	Introduction to hospital pharmacy training course	Combination
Module 1: Overview of hospital pharmacy practice	✓	✓	✓
Module 2: Medication management in a clinical setting	✓	✓	✓
Module 3: Medicines information and Medication safety	✓	✓	✓
Module 4: Communication	✓	✓	✓
Guided Clinical Cases	X	✓	✓
Assessment quiz	X	✓	✓
Certificate	Standard SHPA Certificate of completion	Certificate of Achievement, signed by Kristin Michaels, SHPA Chief Executive	Both
Access any time	X	✓	✓*
Duration of access	18 weeks	26 weeks	26 weeks
Live seminar	Included	Discounted, additional 14 Group 2 CPD credits available	Included
Eligible Group 1 CPD credits	7.5	0	0
Eligible Group 2 CPD credits	16	21	35
Total eligible CPD credits	23.5	21	35

*Subject to scheduled seminars

- The Introduction to hospital pharmacy training course allows you to start your learning as soon as you are ready, you don't have to wait until a scheduled seminar
- If you purchase the Introduction to hospital pharmacy training course, you unlock access to special introductory pricing for the live component of the Foundation Seminar in Clinical Medication Management