

Specialty Practice: Terms and Conditions

Membership

Participating in Advanced Pharmacy Australia (AdPha) Specialty Practice is an AdPha member benefit. Access to the Communities platform and SPG Discussions, and continuation as a Specialty Practice Group (SPG) member, Verified Member or Leadership Committee Member is conditional on your continued AdPha membership or NZHPA Affiliate membership.

Access to the Communities platform will cease when your AdPha membership expires.

Significant or intentional breaches of these terms and conditions will be escalated to the AdPha Executive.

SPG Discussions

As a member of AdPha Specialty Practice, when participating in SPG Discussions you agree to comply with the AdPha Communities Discussions Terms of Use.

Intellectual property

Documents, publications, presentations and other content, created or generated by or on behalf of an AdPha SPG or project remains the property of the Advanced Pharmacy Australia (AdPha).

Confidentiality

Leadership Committee Members, Verified Members and others in working groups on AdPha projects, may be privy to information that is commercial-in-confidence, which must not be disclosed to primary employers, third parties or competitor organisations.

Conflict of interest

Members of Leadership Committees with a perceived, potential or actual conflict of interest, must submit a Conflict of Interest disclosure. See AdPha Conflict of Interest policy.

Leaving a Specialty Practice Group

Members may leave Specialty Practice Groups via the Communities platform.

Verified Members can relinquish their verification status by informing the AdPha Specialty Practice team.

Leadership Committee members resigning before the end of their term need to notify the Chair of the Leadership Committee and AdPha (specialtypractice@adpha.au) of their resignation.
